

Grand Prix Region Tour to old Fort MacArthur July 8, 2017 — Saturday

On July 8, tour more sights of San Pedro and Palos Verdes ending at the historic Fort MacArthur.

Originally authorized by President Grover Cleveland in 1888, it was officially designated a fort from 1914 to 1974 to protect Los Angeles Harbor from sea and air attacks.

Starting in San Pedro this tour of Palos Verdes Peninsula will include the Cabrillo Marine Aquarium, Angels Gate Park, White Point Royal Palm Beach Park, Portuguese Bend Landslide, the radar domes and end at historic Fort MacArthur for their celebration Old Fort MacArthur Days.
